

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Tim Bjorneberg has been a devoted servant to the people of South Dakota since joining the South Dakota Department of Transportation on May 27, 1980; and,

Whereas, Tim began his career as Engineer In Training at the Yankton area office where he worked with surveying, project inspections, materials testing, and traffic control. He methodically advanced his career within the department holding at least eleven professional positions, including seven supervisory and management levels (most notably Chief Road Design Engineer), both in the Pierre area and central office; and,

Whereas, Tim served the last 6 years as the Project Development Engineer where his outstanding leadership, compassionate professionalism, reasoning, and dedication have improved the effectiveness and efficiencies of project delivery, funding and scheduling of improvements, and assets for South Dakota's transportation system; and,

Whereas, Tim has more importantly devoted his life to the caring and sharing with his wife, Barb, daughters - Tracy, Brooke, Julie, and son-in-law, Eric, grandchildren, and many friends, and also to the day-to-day attention and professionalism necessary to make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Tim has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, while founding the popular Carp Lodge in 1981, leading the bowling team for decades, participating in the Department of Transportation golf league, and playing league softball for many years, supporting his church, and all his affiliations; and,

Whereas, On November 8, 2011, after 31 years of service to the South Dakota Department of Transportation, Tim Bjorneberg is retiring; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 8, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers, family, and many friends in wishing him a fulfilling and enjoyable retirement.

TIM BJORNEBERG DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Judy A. Larson, Exec. Asst.
Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State